Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

the most effective remedy for coughs and colds of every kind and in every stage.

One of the most annoying coughs is a throat cough, where you have constant tickling in your throat.
It comes on when you awake, and keeps you awake, and makes you have that smothered feeling in the chest. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
quiets the cough,
makes breathing easy, and loosens the lungs. There is no other remedy so surely to be relied on.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them and of so-called "Genuine Cherry Pectoral."
Be sure you get AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

Put up in large and small bottles.

MORE ABOUT THE JAP REGIMENTS ON DAHU

ADVERTISER DISCREDITS THE REPORT IN ONE COLUMN BUT GIVES IT CURRENCY IN ANOTHER

In connection with a cable dispatch from Washington that a dispatch had been given out that the government had been notified of the presence of two Japanese regiments among the Japanese of Honolulu, the Advertiser this morning publishes the following comment, evidently intended to throw discredit on the article in The Star yesterday setting forth that such notification had been sent to the government at Washington:

"A sensational report was published yesterday in one of the afternoon papers to the effect that the government
Japanese soldiers here, ready to mobilize at the word of command. The same report was sent out to the San Francisco Examiner some days ago."
But in another column of the same paper it publishes the following:

Japanese army officers who served during the Japan-Russo war are reported to be in and about Honolulu accepting service as servants, yamenmen, etc., and it is understood that reports are made by them at a headquarters said to be located in one of the numerous Japanese hotels here.

A family recently employed a man to do general work about their premises. He spoke no English apparently, and performed his work satisfactorily.
A couple of weeks after he was employed he and the head of the family had an altercation, concerning some work, when to the astonishment of the latter the Japanese talked volubly in English. The householders had previously had some intimation that the muck yardman was apparently a man of superior talents. The man would absent himself during the day time for a couple of hours at a time and was seen at one time in the vicinity of the new army post at Kahaui and later taking notes near Kailua bay. Whether or not the notes were of any importance from a strategical standpoint is not known, of course.

There has been a rumor about town, also, that two regiments of Japanese, with their officers, are in the community, which could be mobilized at a few hours' notice. Such information is said to have been reported to the War Department at Washington by an army officer. A year ago, while a prominent army general was passing through Honolulu this officer told the general officer that he surmised that the Japanese were fairly well organized here and could muster in their regiments with little trouble.
